Description :

PDF-512b4 | This is a biography of the Empress Matilda.

Granddaughter of William the Conqueror and of King Malcolm of the Scots, and daughter of Henry I, Matilda fought for the throne of England, arguably hers by right, for nine years, and was denied it largely because she was a woman. Contemporary chroniclers said of her that she was "always superior to feminine softness and with a mind steeled and unbroken ... The Empress Matilda: Queen Consort, Queen Mother and Lady of the English
