Description :

PDF-b11a9 | A royal marriage, based on romantic passion and ferocious, unbridgeable religious differences, ends in tragedy? a history worthy of Shakespeare. It was, from the start, a dangerous experiment. Charles I of England was a Protestant, the fifteen-year-old French princess a Catholic. The marriage was arranged for political purposes, and it seemed a mismatch of personalities. But against the odds, the... A Royal Passion: The Turbulent Marriage of King Charles I of England and Henrietta Maria of France
